Food for Thought

Have you ever been asked a question and you know the person asking the question is testing you to see how you will react? It's this silly game that the Sadducees play with Jesus in today's Gospel. They wanted to trap Jesus, yet instead of trapping Him, Jesus uses the question and answer to give a powerful teaching on the Resurrection. Death is hard to talk about and for many people, they find it hard to believe in life after death and don't believe in Heaven. Although we haven't been to Heaven, God gives us little tasters! The closer we get to the Lord the more of heaven we will have in our lives here on earth. Whenever Jesus comes to us, He doesn't leave Heaven behind, but brings it with Him for us to experience. May anyone who is grieving the passing of a loved one take comfort from knowing that physical death is not the end of life, but the beginning of a new one. Imagine going into the heart of love, into the arms of God who is love. As today's Psalm says...I shall see your face and be filled with the sight of your glory'. What heavenly bliss and unending life with God our loving Father awaits us all!

Praise Him!
